Guideline for selection of beneficiary and Implementation of the programme:

1. Preference is to be given to the Small, Marginal and Women farmers.
2. PPS/SHG/FPC may be involved for successful implementation of the programme.
3. Benefit to each farmer should not exceed 0.5 Ha area.
4. As far as practicable the coverage should be in cluster approach to extent possible.
5. The beneficiaries should have their own land.
6. This is a subsidy oriented scheme.
7. Seeds will be provided to farmers at free of cost from Govt share.
8. The cost of other inputs such as fertilizer, plant protection, irrigation and labour are to be borne by the beneficiary himself from his own source or through bank loans.
9. Each beneficiary should be provided seeds with a single crop / variety only.
10. Soft copy of beneficiary list is to be submitted for uploading in the RKVY RDMIS.
11. Success story of the scheme with photograph and proper documentation may be kept in readiness right from planting to harvesting.
12. While receiving the seeds, following points are to be taken careof;
    - Check the Crop, Variety, Quantity of Seeds as per allotment
    - Check the expiry date of seeds
    - Ensure sealed pack
    - Collect the empty packet of vegetable seeds from beneficiaries and keep the same in your establishment for future reference.
    - Mention clearly the receipt date, entry of stock book, receivers' signature with office seal along with countersignature of D.A.O. on the body of the Challan.
    - Verify the vehicle number and type of vehicle during delivery of seeds.
    - Photographic evidence during receipt of seeds along with vehicle / carrier.
    - Immediate distribute the seeds to the selected beneficiaries on receipt of seeds
